BIOBERTH LINE

BIO Certified Skincare

BIOBERTH LINE

Natural products are seeing exponential growth patterns since the past decade and consumer popularity and demand has prompted labs to formulate using natural-based chemistry and find more sustainable alternates to synthetics in order to satisfy consumer needs and provide a more earth-centred approach to product manufacturing so that we can move towards a more caring planet-loving society with a minimal carbon-footprint.

BIOBERTH is a BIO certified cosmetic line created with the intention of helping our skin without damaging the environment. Key ingredients like lemon water, pure African Shea butter, hyaluronic acid, natural preservatives and Rosehip oil will transform the health of the barrier in a clinically proven natural manner without compromising the health of the planet.

BIOBERTH is a perfect marriage of natural chemistry and advanced biotechnology as our aim is to produce a range of results-driven natural products with an evidence based approach.

Not all cosmetics are of natural origin. In many cases the origin of the raw materials is synthetic, and many of them come from petroleum derivatives and plastics.

Given the different definitions and the disparity of criteria to define what is a natural, vegan and organic cosmetic, it is important to have independent organizations that are in charge of certifying these products in order to generate confidence and tranquility in consumers.

The best way to ensure that the cosmetic that we are going to buy complies with manufacturing standards and contains organic cosmetic ingredients is through the seals belonging to any of the independent organizations on the market, because, unlike others sectors, the terms “ecological” and “natural” in the names of cosmetics are not protected and there are brands that use them to advertise their products without any rigor or control.

The certificate or seal guarantees that:

- A large percentage of its ingredients is of natural origin.
- Does not contain ingredients of animal origin.
- Its formulation does not contain substances of doubtful harmlessness to health or the environment, such as petroleum derivatives.
- In its preparation, transformation processes respectful of the environment are carried out: the so-called “green chemistry”.
- Ingredients or processes that involve the use of technologies such as genetically modified organisms are not allowed.

BIOBERTH NIGHT CREAM

50 ml · Price: €8,61

A cocktail of clinically backed botanicals will ward off wrinkle formation and increase the innate ability of the skin to manage aging in a powerful yet natural manner. Key phytoactives will allow the skin to attain homeostasis as topically introduced compounds will rewind the aging clock by increasing free radical scavenging properties of the skin's antioxidant system. Additionally, your skin will heal while you sleep as powerful ingredients penetrate the epidermis and fortify unhealthy skin cells. You will wake up feeling rejuvenated with unbelievably soft skin. This powerhouse of a cream will become the most valued product in your vanity shelf, and trust us, your skin will thank for this gift of self-care.

EYE REPAIR CREAM with Phytoplacenta

15 ml · Precio: 5,48 €

Each of its components helps to enhance the vital processes of the cells in a synergistic way, stimulating the activation of the cellular metabolism and restoring the energy for an optimal activity of the fibroblasts.

Its high content of vitamin F allows the cells of the epidermis to recover all their osmotic tension at the level of the superficial layers of the skin. It is essential for the formation of the lipid barrier of the epidermis.

The fatty acids that make it up are the precursors of the molecules that increase the resistance of the skin against external aggressions.

As a result of the stimulation of cell vitality, suffocated, fragile and dull-toned skin is revitalized and invigorated, and epidermal cell regeneration is accelerated for much fresher and more radiant skin.

MAIN INGREDIENTS:

Glycine Soja Phytoplacenta Extract, Glycoproteins, Avena Sativa Kernel Extract, Plankton Extract, Glutamic Acid, Valine, Threonine, Linoleic Acid, Linolenic Acid.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

GENERAL

Is €3,000 MOQ intended to be for a single product or can several be included? The implementation order must be for a minimum of €3,000 regardless of the number of references or the units.

Does the price include container and filling? Yes.

What is the delivery term? 3-4 weeks from receipt of label or logo designs and advance payment.

Is transportation included? Not.

What is the shelflife of the products? 36 months for unopened product; 6 months from product opening.

LABELLING

Is the label customized only with our logo or can we use our own design? You have two options:

- A) You can send us your own design based on the label size and the legal texts we will provide.
- B) We can adapt your logo to an elegant design template.

Does the label background have to be white? No, the client can decide the design even including a photograph. Our labels are digitally printed in full color.

Can I send my own labels? Yes, we will send the template as example for your design. You can send ready-printed labels but no variation in the price of the product can be expected for that reason.

Can I change the name of the product? Yes.

Can you help me with the design of my label? We can only send a sample label and all the information you need to include. The client who decides to contribute their designs should contact a professional designer to help them with the graphic aspect.

Does the name of Laboratorio Español have to appear on the label? It is not necessary. The name of the client's company may appear on the label, in which case their address must also appear.

How should a product be labelled? The jar and/or outer case must be labelled with the following information:

- A) Name or business name of the company that puts the product on the market.
- B) Content by weight or volume.
- C) Date until which the product can be used once opened (Logo PAO - Period After Opening).
- D) Mode of use and precautions if any.
- E) Batch number.
- F) Purpose of the cosmetic product.
- G) ECOEMBES logo .
- H) List of ingredients INCI (International Nomenclature of Cosmetic Ingredients). This data is unchangeable. It must be exact to the one provided, without changing the order or translating the ingredients.

In what format do I have to send the logo or complete design? Vectorized, in Illustrator or PDF.

Can I put the texts in another language? If they fit on the label, there is no problem.

REGULATIONS

What is the CPNP? It stands for Cosmetic Product Notification Portal. It is known as the "European portal". It is the portal where the products that are put up for sale in the European market are registered. All products that we sell in Europe must be registered with the CPNP.

Should I personally upload the product to the CPNP? No, we take care of notifying the placing on the market of the product with its new name and logo. The cost is €75 per reference to be paid on the first order.

Is a registration in the CPNP necessary for each product or can I upload an entire line of products? Each reference must have its own registration in the CPNP.

What is a security dossier? A series of studies that guarantee that it is safe to launch a product on the market. Every product that goes on sale must necessarily have a safety dossier.

What is a security dossier (PIF)? It is a report that contains:

- A) Quantitative and qualitative formula of the product.
- B) Microbiological and physical-chemical analysis.
- C) Compatibility of the product with the container.
- D) Product stability.
- E) Labelling.
- F) Technical and safety data sheets for each of the product's ingredients.
- G) Food compatibility of the container.
- H) Technical characteristics of the container.
- I) Cosmetovigilance .
- J) Patch Test: Sensitivity of the product on the skin (optional).
- K) Challenge Test: It measures the effectiveness of the preservative in the product.
- L) Het Cam: Measures the sensitivity of the product around the eyes and the irritability of babies' skin (Optional).

Do all stock line products have a safety dossier? Yes.

The products that make up the STOCK LINE catalog are manufactured by Laboratorio Español de Investigación Cosmológica following the European regulations for the manufacture of cosmetic products under the exclusive SAFE 22716 protocol.

The experience of three generations in the manufacture of cosmetic products, the sophisticated R&D, the meticulous quality control and the presence of our products in more than 40 countries have been awarded by the European Center for Innovative Companies and the Valencian Institute of Business Competitiveness with the awards for Best Business Project 2014, Best Trajectory in 2015, as well as the Aedepi Gold Medal 2017. From Health Beauty & Wellness magazine, it received the awards for the Best Cosmetic Manufacturer Specialist in R&D 2020 and the Best Cosmetic Company Specialist in Private Label Manufacturing 2021. The Chamber of Commerce, Industry and Navigation of Alicante awarded the prize for the Best Business Reinvention in 2021 and the Chamber of Commerce of Alcoy for Best Internationalization in 2022. Likewise, Laboratorio Español received the Prestige Awards for the Best Natural Product 2021/2022.

Whether large or small, whether a traditional company or a startup, our goal is to be able to supply our customers with branded products exactly as they need them, at the best quality and price.

We offer from developments adapted to each client to a large selection of products in stock formulated by our R+D staff and dermatologically tested that we can supply both in bulk and as a finished product, either with packaging provided by the client or selected from our packaging catalog that includes hundreds of references from the most renowned manufacturers in Europe, Asia and the USA.
